Howdy all, just wanted to say hey!

I have enjoyed playing on your servers off and on for years :)

I was just wondering how OLD some of you are? I'm 51.

I started into gaming on the pc when Rogue spear came out .From there it was bf42 etc.

I have been playing on your COD4 server alot lately :) ,had some crackin good games and just wanted to say ty.

The server rocks!!

Hi there, folks. Since Queeks gave his age, guess I will too. I'm 41, and have been playing on the OMC server for a few months now. It's the best group I've come across so far; in fact, I won't even play if the server is full!

I've been messing with computer since 1982; they sure have come a long way since those days. I remember the first time I saw the Atari 400; COLOR! Man, it was amazing.

To be honest, until CoD4 came out, I never really got into playing online; I thought my brother was nuts for spending so much time playing online. Boy, have I changed my mind! This is a blast!

Anyway, just wanted to say hi, and I'll see you around!

Hey guys I used to belong to this great clan back a few years ago when i played EVE Online. I'm back into gaming as my life has calmed down a bit. I'm getting back into EVE online among other games that you fellas are playing now. Well I hope to see you all in game sometime or another. I'll be active on the forums as much as I can. Talk to you all later.
