Well gentlemen, it was recommended to me that I check you guys out. I am currently playing COD4 as much as possible. I got hooked on the game after getting it a week ago and have been playing it almost every night since!

I actually know a few of you guys personally, Rodric (OMCLandfill) is a friend of mine that I ride with and he was the one that recommended that I sign up on the forum. I am far from a great FPS player, but I love playing, and I love hackling guys as much as possible on COD and getting them all riled up.

hope to see some of you guys on, I will be keeping my eyes opened for OMC on COD4 in the near future.
